Balanced Nutrition

At all stages of a person's life, proper nutrition is vitally important. During early childhood, children need critical essential vitamins and nutrients for healthy growth and development. During adolescence, busy children need good nutrition, particularly when faced with fast foods, sweets and snacks. And into adulthood, often facing stress, poor digestion, and unhealthy environmental influences, a comprehensive nutrition program is needed. When it comes to supporting a lifetime of healthy living, it is vital to understand that proper nutrition and exercise during childhood can make the difference later in life.

Eniva VIBE® Kids is the leading "all-in-one" family supplement bursting with a balanced blend of:

- Essential Nutrients • Powerful Amino Acids
- Fruit and Vegetable Components
- 100s of other beneficial ingredients to help support healthy physical, emotional and mental development for children.*
